A LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Hi Friends!

The cultural season is in full swing, and the Pompano Beach Cultural Affairs Department has an eclectic array of programming to keep you entertained! 2024 starts off on a high note as legendary jazz musicians hit the beach this January for Jazz Fest! Dip your toes in the sand, enjoy culinary treats from your favorite restaurants, all while listening to Grammy Award-winning jazz legend Branford Marsalis, famed singer Lisa Fischer & Grand Baton, and sax players Najee and David Sanchez. The festival kicks off January 18th at the Cultural Center with a special concert featuring the Valerie Tyson Band.

Being a cultural incubator is a core element of our mission and our dynamic group of eight Artists in Residence (AiRs) at Bailey Contemporary Arts continue to make an impact on the community with monthly exhibitions during Old Town Untapped, interactive workshops, and exciting classes. We invite you to engage with these talented creatives and expand your artistic abilities! A list of fun-filled classes offered by the AiRs, including a workshop on how to paint murals, is on page 6.

I believe art unites us all, and our team loves immersing the City with programs that connect residents of all ages. We are excited to introduce our new Gazebo Concert Series in Palm Aire, showcase talented young musicians at the Children in the Arts Piano Competition, and continue our expansive live theatre offerings with an extended run of The Secret Comedy of Women, considered the ultimate "girl's night out" show.

We also have a full roster of programs celebrating Black History Month including a hip-hop dance class, a film screening, Jazz Reflections featuring Nicole Yarling, and T.M. Pride's Emancipation Blues, which interprets the trials and triumphs of African-Americans through dance. Additional Black History Month information is on page 22.

We hope this overview has intrigued you! Our goal is to create programming that entices, entertains, and educates. We encourage you to visit our website, pompanobeacharts.org to find out what's next, and be sure to sign up for our newsletters so you don't miss special offers!

Looking forward to seeing you at the next event!

Sincerely,

Ty Tabing

ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE PROGRAM

2023-2024

Bailey Contemporary Arts
Artists in Residence (AiR) Program

The City of Pompano Beach Cultural Affairs Department is delighted to continue celebrating the 2023/2024 class of Artists in Residence (AiR) at the historic Bailey Contemporary Arts Center (BaCA).

The AiR Program provides artists with studio space to create new work, collaborate with fellow resident artists, and engage with our community. This dynamic and diverse group of artists will be in residence through June, and we will present each as an "Artist of the Month," offering them the opportunity to showcase their work and create unique programs to attract art lovers to BaCA.

Exploring Color Theory with Oil Paints

Workshop Series

This seven class course art class is designed for both beginners and intermediate artists who want to master the world of color through oil painting. The course will delve into the fundamental principles of color theory and its application in oil painting. Students will learn how to mix, blend, and use colors effectively to create visually stunning artwork with a focus on color values, hue, intensity, and the creation of a monochromatic value.

Location: BaCA

10am-12pm | $25/ea. class

Monochromatic Value Scale

January 27: Instructor displays monochromatic value scales in different colors. Students create their own monochromatic value scales, choosing a single color and mixing shades from light to dark on their canvases.

Introduction to Color Theory

February 10 Instructor presents the color wheel, explaining the relationships between primary, secondary, and tertiary colors. Students create their own color wheels, labeling and mixing the colors to gain a practical understanding.

Color Mixing Techniques

February 24: Instructor demonstrates how to create a smooth gradient from one color to another using blending and layering. Students practice creating gradients on small canvases, experimenting with different colors and transitions.

Color Values, Hue, and Intensity

March 9: Instructor shows a painting with strong value contrast, explaining how it impacts the artwork. Students choose a simple object and create two versions: one with high value contrast and one with low value contrast to observe the difference.

CLASS 5

Color Harmony

March 23: Instructor displays artworks featuring complementary and analogous color schemes and discusses the visual appeal of each. Students choose a subject and create two versions of the same painting, one using complementary colors and the other using analogous colors.

CLASS 6

Still Life & Landscape

April 13: Instructor presents a still life setup or landscape photo, highlighting the potential color harmonies and value scales. Students paint the provided subject, paying attention to applying the color theory principles learned in previous classes.

CLASS 7

Personal Projects

April 27: Instructor provides guidance on students' personal projects, reviewing their concepts and offering suggestions. Students work on their chosen personal projects, integrating color theory knowledge into their artwork.

Express Yourself

Workshop Series

Express Yourself Workshop Series is a 4-class workshop series designed to create a dynamic space for artistic development, community building, and individual growth. This program incorporates a range of curated projects and classes, aligning with the goals of the "Express Yourself" initiative. Location: BaCA

7-9pm | $25/ea. class

Be My Valentine

February 1: Celebrate love in a creative way with our special "Be My Valentine" workshop. This couples paint and sip night encourages partners to enjoy a pre-sketched picture drawn by Louiveste La Croix, focusing on painting each other's best features. It's a unique and intimate date night that combines artistry and romance.

Self Affirmation "Bonsai Tree"

March 7: As spring blossoms, the "Self Affirmation Bonsai Tree" workshop takes participants on a powerful journey of self-discovery and affirmation. Each participant will paint a Bonsai Tree, infusing it with characteristics that represent their unique identity. The session includes a guided exploration of self-affirmation, fostering personal growth and confidence.

Be Your Own Van Gogh

April 4: In this immersive workshop, participants will delve into the techniques of Van Gogh's "Starry Night." Guided by step-by-step instructions, they will learn to paint the iconic starry background with a personal twist. The session concludes with a challenge: participants are encouraged to create their own unique interpretation of the starry night, fostering individual creativity and self-expression.

Vision Board

May 2: This workshop invites participants to reflect on their goals and aspirations. Attendees will craft visual representations of their dreams and ambitions for the coming year. This session will feature a collaboration with a guest speaker, adding an inspirational layer to the workshop.

Momentary Cloudiness, Hurricanes, Plastic & Water

by Holly Hanessian

January 12-March 23: Momentary Cloudiness, Hurricanes, Plastic and Water explores the correlation between single-use plastic bottled water and the rise of hurricane activity. Through a multidisciplinary approach that emphasizes the transformative power of social engagement and community action, Holly Hanessian presents a series of projects that focus on water conservation and environmental preparedness for hurricane seasons. Momentary Cloudiness, Hurricanes, Plastic & Water is situated at the intersection of socially engaged art, design, craft, and contemporary art, with its main focus on water sustainability linked to hurricane emergencies and the impact of plastic waste on these weather disasters.

Somewhere Between

by Deborah W. Perlman

January 12-March 23: Somewhere Between features a series of abstract collages featuring 'almost-but-not-quite real' spaces which offer a world somewhere between real and imagined. Working with a variety of papers, building and lifting certain elements to emphasize the spatial dynamics of the composition and the elements of space, light, shape, and form. In this body of work, Perlman juxtaposes forms and shapes, highlighting points of contact and the shadows they cast, demonstrating how these elements relate to each other and capturing a scene that stirs the senses.

POMPAÑO BEACH PUBLIC ART PROGRAM

Since the Public Art Committee's inception in 2012, the City has acquired sculptures, murals, wrapped traffic boxes, and even created an underwater sculpture garden. Over that past year, the Committee has been working with Brodin Studios to create a "bust" to honor the late Hazel Armbrister. Ms. Armbrister is an icon in Pompano Beach. She originally arrived in Pompano in the 1950's. She was a farmworker, an educator, and a historian. She was named City Historian by the Pompano Beach City Commission in 2017 and was instrumental in saving the Ali Building as well as founding Rock Road Restoration Historical Group, Inc. The artwork will consist of a bronze bust in her likeness and will be installed in the Hazel K. Armbrister Courtyard located at the Ali Cultural Arts Center. The artwork is set to be installed in 2024.

For more information on the City's Public Art Program, and to be involved in upcoming art projects, please contact Laura Atria 954.545.7800, #3813, or go to the City's Public Art website at www.pbpublic.com and sign up for our Artist Network.

The City's Public Art Committee meets every third Thursday at 5 pm at the Pompano Beach Cultural Center. Meetings are open to the public and all are welcome to join!
