RULES OF CONDUCT

As set forth in §30.07 of the City's Code of Ordinances:

The City Commission recognizes the importance of protecting the right of all citizens to express opinions on the operation of city government and encourage citizen participation in the local government process. The Commission shall not prohibit public criticism of the policies, procedures, programs or services of the Commission, or the acts or omissions of the Commission. The Commission also recognizes the necessity for conducting orderly and efficient meetings in order to complete City business in a timely manner, and has set out policies to ensure same, which include the following requirements:

- Members of the public may speak only at times designated by the Mayor. See §30.07(C)(1)(b)
- Each person addressing the Commission shall proceed to the place assigned for speaking and give his or her name and address in an audible tone of voice for the record. See §30.07(C)(1)(c)
- The Mayor shall rule out of order any member of the public who shall speak without being recognized, or who shall not address the Commission from the podium or other established speaking area. See §30.07(C)(1)(d)

See §30.07(C)(1)(e)
- City Commission meetings shall be conducted in a courteous manner. Citizens and Commission members will be allowed to state their positions in an atmosphere free of slander and threats of violence. Sufficient warning may be given by the Mayor at any time during the remarks and, in the event that any individual shall violate the rules of conduct herein set forth, the Mayor may then cut off comment or debate. See §37.07(C)(3)(b)
- Disruptions. Persons in the audience will refrain from behavior which will disrupt the public meeting. This will include making loud noises, clapping, shouting, booing, hissing, talking in a private conversation or engaging in any other activity in a manner that disturbs, disrupts or impedes the orderly conduct of the meeting. See §30.07(B)(4)
- It is unlawful and a violation of the City's Code of Ordinances for any individual to disturb or interrupt any meeting of the City Commission. Any individual who causes a disturbance of the meeting shall be warned by the Mayor or, alternatively, by a majority vote of the Commission that the conduct is interfering with or disturbing the order of the meeting and shall be given the opportunity to cease the conduct constituting an interruption or disturbance. If, after sufficient warning, the individual fails to cease the offending conduct and continues to interrupt or disturb the meeting, the individual shall be removed from the meeting by a deputy of the Broward County Sheriffs Office or his authorized agent in attendance at the meeting if so directed by the Mayor.
