Special City Commission Meeting
Tuesday, June 1st
5:30 p.m.

The Pompano Beach City Commission will be holding a Virtual Special Commission Meeting on Tuesday, June 1st at 5:30 p.m.

The purpose of the Special City Commission Meeting is to discuss an amended Resolution to approve and authorize the proper City officials to execute a contract for sale and purchase of property for use as a municipal charter school.

Members of the community will have an opportunity to view and participate in the meeting.

Interested parties can view the Special Commission Meetings in the normal manner, on Comcast Ch. 78 live and via rebroadcast as well as through live streaming and archive on the City's website at www.pompanobeachfl.gov.

Members of the Community who wish to participate in the meeting and speak on an item must utilize the remote public participation option. This option promotes social distancing, while still offering interested parties the opportunity to participate in matters coming before the City Commission.

Anyone who wishes to address the City Commission remotely (via telephone) on the agenda item must pre-register by 9:00 a.m. the day of the meeting. The link to register is on the Commission Page with the agenda.

Detailed instructions on how to participate remotely can be found on the City's website Commission Page at <https://pompanobeachfl.gov/pages/commission>.
